TEAM ANYTHING GOES

Team Anything Goes...This isn't your typical mud riding club. Although mud riding is this club's first passion and primary reason for being established, the name says it all! From mud bogs to trail rides to parades to Bourbon Street to Mexico, Anything, and I mean, Anything Goes!

This local LaFayette riding club was created in 2007 by a group of friends who were looking for a reason to get together and ride. It quickly grew into something one of its founders, Jimmy Mathis, never expected. Today Team Anything Goes consists of over 65 members, has a racing team, and organizes group events that do not require mud.

Any given weekend you may find a caravan of trucks, campers and trailers donning Anything Goes stickers heading toward Louisiana, Mississippi or Texas

ATV Parks. Sometimes it's for a group ride. These trips usually include a night ride and always include grilling or frying up a meal for the group. Sometimes it's for a good cause. In June, Anything Goes made their presence known at the Boggin' in the Back Forty Event by raising over $2,500. This event was a fundraiser for the family of Brooklyn Davison, a child from Stapleton, Alabama who has Neuroblastoma. And sometimes it's for racing. Team Anything Goes has been racing competitively since 2008, appearing in large events such as Mud Nationals, CMR Race Series and High Lifter Series. They race bikes and riders of all ages, gender and ability.

They are sponsored by Tiger Tail, Just Add Dirt, Cajun Tie Downs, Yasky and Hormell's Extremme ATV. Sounds pretty typical of a mud riding club, right? Well get this team out of the mud for a little while and you will see why the name fits so well.

Four-wheelers and mud have brought this large group together, but the friendships that have been formed extend well beyond the mud. And with everything they do, the name, Anything Goes, is well represented! Last year Anything Goes had a float in the New Iberia Sugar Cane Festival Parade and rode four-wheelers in the Catahoula Christmas

Parade. Next Mardi Gras look for the Anything Goes Float in the Lafayette Mardi Gras Parade. Another fun event that the team organizes is Anything Goes in New Orleans. Their annual trip to New Orleans is a favorite among many team members. In January the team has yet another exciting mudless event planned: Anything Goes on the Carnival Triumph! They will be sailing away on a 5-day cruise to Mexico.

Team Anything Goes is all about having a good time and enjoying life. They always welcome new faces and new sponsors. For information about upcoming events, check out their website: www.anythinggoes.com. You can also follow them on Facebook and Twitter.
